

Here and There

Editorial By ALEX. H. WASHBURN

TO solve the fundamental trade problems confronting it today the world must eventually scrap much of its fine paper theory and fall back on practical policies. Here, for instance, on my desk I have an object lesson on tariffs.

Payment of One Year's Tax Will Redeem Property

Ridgill Believes Assessment Decline of One Third May Be Checked

REDEMPTION PLAN Act No. 2 Provides Means of Returning Property to Tax Books

Definite benefits are in prospect for Hempstead county taxpayers as a result of provisions of Act No. 2 of the special legislative session this year, it was indicated by county officials Thursday.

The act was intended primarily to save for the individual taxpayers, who were delinquent in meeting their annual real estate assessments on their homes and other land on which taxes had not been paid since 1931 by enabling them to settle as much as two years delinquency by paying one year's tax.

Since 1931 Hempstead county's assessment total was reduced by about 33 1-3 per cent through inability of taxpayers to pay taxes, John W. Ridgill, county assessor, said. When a parcel of property is listed as delinquent, and sold to the state for non-payment of taxes, the property is dropped from the assessment records, Mr. Ridgill explained.

County Treasurer Frank Ward anticipates that a large part of the delinquent lands will have been redeemed by the last of December. The lands are redeemed by paying to the treasurer the amount shown on a land redemption statement issued by Arthur Anderson, county clerk.

Mr. Ridgill stressed the importance of paying the past due taxes before the opportunity extended by Act No. 2, is automatically withdrawn on January 1, 1934. After that date all unpaid taxes must be settled in full before any tax forfeited land can be redeemed, Mr. Ridgill said.

Nashville Kidnap Pair Get 18 Years

Shaffer and Brooks Sentenced for Seizure of Night Watchman

NASHVILLE, Ark.—Fred Shaffer, of Pennsylvania, and Lester Brooks, of Mississippi, were sentenced to 18 years each in the penitentiary in Circuit Court here by Judge A. P. Steel Tuesday.

They were charged with kidnaping Night Watchman Lonnie Morris and breaking into and robbing the Reitor drug store on the night of September 19. They were sentenced to 10 years for kidnaping, five years for robbery, two years for burglary and one year for grand larceny. Brooks was captured near Lee Queen the day following the robbery and Shaffer was captured several weeks later in Houston, Texas.

Change of Venue Is Given Crowley

Jonesboro Murder Trial Transferred to Clay County

JONESBORO, Ark.—Circuit Judge G. E. Kevick granted a change of venue to Clay county in the Rev. Dale S. Crowley, charged with first degree murder and assault with intent to kill, Wednesday afternoon.

Crowley fatally shot J. W. MacMurdo, junior at the Jonesboro Baptist telegraph, and fired at Stacy Biwell.

Prosecuting Attorney Denver L. Dudley unsuccessfully opposed the motion.

C. E. Webb, a member of the Crowley faction in the church war, was indicted on charges of signing a bond for L. H. Kohn in excess of his personal worth. Only minor cases were disposed of by the court Wednesday.

Bulletins

BALTIMORE, Md.—(AP)—Mrs. William K. Massey, of Hot Springs, Ark., Thursday was elected president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, holding their annual convention here. She had no opposition.

POT SPRINGS, Ark.—(AP)—Anne Seiple McPherson Hutton arrived here at a rest Thursday and not for a 30-day divorce from her baritone husband, David Hutton, she said.

Transfer of R.F.C. Men to Projects Gets Under Way

100,000 Off Relief Rolls in Texas—110,000 Slated in Arkansas

REGISTER AT ONCE Bert Keith Warns Unemployed to Get on File for Local Jobs

WASHINGTON — (AP) — An estimate from Secretary Purkins that an additional 85,000 persons found employment in October was issued simultaneously Thursday with a call for a White House conference on relief for women, to be presided over by Mrs. Roosevelt.

Emergency Relief and Civil Workers Administrator Hopkins announced a parley as part of the administration's effort to put 4 million men back to work by December 16.

Hopkins stated that 100,000 were transferred Thursday from the relief rolls in Texas, with smaller transfers elsewhere.

Arkansas expects to take 111,000 off the relief rolls by December 16, he said.

Unemployed Must Register

An announcement elsewhere in today's Star by Bert Keith, national employment agent for Hempstead county, warns unemployed persons that to obtain relief work on the forthcoming local road program, and other local projects, they must register at his office in the Arkansas Bank & Trust Co. building.

British Move for German Equality

Simon Dispatched to Geneva on New Arms Conference Mission

By the Associated Press.

Interest in international disarmament, which has been weak since Germany withdrew from the arms conference last month, was awakened throughout Europe Thursday when Great Britain ordered Sir John Simon, foreign secretary, to Geneva.

Simon is to attempt a renewal of the arms discussion in a manner in which Germany can be induced to participate.

Raskob Rumored for U. S. Treasury

Al Smith May Become Senator, and Farley New York Governor

NEW YORK.—The real significance of the visit of former Governor Alfred B. Smith to Washington, D. C., when he conferred with President Roosevelt Tuesday was revealed exclusively to the New York News Wednesday night.

It concerned not only the appointment of Smith's long-time friend, James J. Farley, as collector of internal revenue for the second district of New York, but the following shifts in the Democratic political alignment:

1. Resignation of William H. Woodin as secretary of the Treasury, and appointment of John J. Raskob, former Democratic national chairman, as Woodin's successor.
2. Resignation of Jesse Isidor Straus as United States ambassador to France and appointment of United States Senator Royal S. Copeland as his successor.
3. Appointment by Governor Lehman of Al Smith as United States senator from New York.
4. Designation of James A. Farley, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, as the next Democratic candidate as governor of New York to succeed Governor Lehman who will not seek re-nomination. In this latter designation, Farley will have the unqualified support of Smith.

Through such an arrangement, marking the end of a long-standing feud between Smith and Farley, it is hoped to circumvent the advantage gained by the Republican-fascists in the recent election of Fiorello H. La Guardia to New York city's mayoralty and to rebuild the tattered Democratic city machine.

It means ouster of John F. Curry as the leader of Tammany hall, according to the information supplied Wednesday night. With him will go John H. McCooey, veteran Tammany boss of Brooklyn.

The entire shift was made possible through the reported intention of Ambassador Straus to resign because of ill health.

Leffel Gentry Is Given State Job

Hope Attorney Employed on Special Highway Claims

Leffel Gentry, formerly of this city, has been employed to assist in handling suits and other legal matters in connection with settlement of highway contractors' claims against the state and set-off claims in favor of the state, it was learned Thursday.

Mr. Gentry has been employed by Walter L. Pope of Little Rock, who is in charge of litigation growing out of the state highway audit.

Mr. Gentry is to be paid a salary of $150 a month from the special appropriation made by the 1933 legislature to follow up litigation resulting from the first highway audit.

Search Abandoned for Missing Ship

Three Vessels Quit Rescue Attempt—27 Men May Be Lost

VALENTIA, Irish Free State.—(AP)—The seaplane Manchester Regiment Thursday abandoned her 24-hour search for the stricken freighter Saxinby, after the great liner Berengaria and the Dutch steamer Boschdyk also were forced to quit their rescue efforts.

The ships failed to find a trace of the missing vessel or her crew of 27 who took to the open sea in life-boats.

U. S. Revenues Increase

Hopeful of the state of government revenue, L. H. Parker, left, chief of staff of the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation, tells how increased business has brought encouraging increases in Uncle Sam's income. The graph shows rise in Uncle Sam's debt from the happy pre-war days when there practically wasn't any, through the war-time peak in 1919, and back almost to that level today. . . . note also the prospect for an all-time debt high within the next two years.

Chairman Has to Climb Fire-Escape to Reach Chamber

"Kingfish" in Real Danger as New Orleans Boss Deserts Him

'COWARD' IS HURLED Chairman Connally, Showing Up Late, Makes Louisianans Angry

NEW ORLEANS, La.—(AP)—Senator Tom Connally, of Texas, chairman of the senate committee investigating the election of Senator John Overton, was forced to climb a fire-escape and go through an unstairs window to reach the committee room in the Scottish Rite cathedral Thursday as hundreds of persons massed in front of the building for resumption of the election hearing.

As Senator Connally climbed through the window he found himself in the ladies' washroom, but committee attaches quickly steered him through the building into the hearing chamber.

Other officials and newsmen were forced to follow Connally's lead up the fire-escape and through the window.

Among them was Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the Women's Committee of Louisiana, seeking the ouster from office of Senators Long and Overton.

It was decided to admit only sufficient spectators to fill the seats in the chamber.

New Orleans Charges

NEW ORLEANS.—(AP)—Charges of slandering, jailing and crowding out of ballots were laid before the special senate committee investigating Senator John H. Overton's election Wednesday by a string of witnesses produced by Francis William, a New Orleans political leader.

The committee settled down to the taking of testimony after a stormy opening precipitated by a statement of Senator Tom Connally, (D, Texas), chairman, who arrived from Texas and took charge of the investigation on the third day. The Texas senator sought to explain that he had not deliberately remained away from the hearing as charged by the committee's investigator, John G. Holland, and that he was not afraid to conduct the inquiry.

"About my being afraid," said the chairman, "the only person afraid of this investigation are you cowards in Louisiana."

Louisiana Is Mad

He got no further as the spectators arose with a roar and shouted denials and denunciations at the chairman. One spectator dared the senator to come outside and men and women voiced their resentment at his remark.

Burt Henry, president of the Honest Election League, the withdrawal from the investigation with the statement they had no confidence in the committee, walked down the center aisle exclaiming:

"Where do you get that coward stuff?"

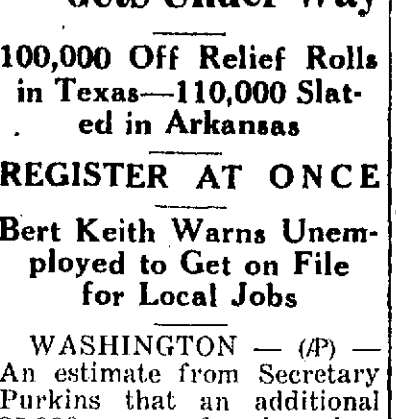

Chairman Connally sought vainly to quell the disturbance, calling for order and pounding the gavel until it broke at the head, and the gavel's head jumped into the water pitcher.

Police guards who were stationed in the room moved among the crowd and sought to quiet them.

Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the women's committee of Louisiana, which is seeking to un-

(Continued on Page Three)

U. S. Revenues Increase

Healthy Gain Means Reduction of Debts

The National Government's Financial Picture Looks Brighter

WASHINGTON—Taxpayers who vision the government as wading into a hopeless swamp of debt needn't be unduly alarmed. Taxpayers who see the future as an endless parade of higher and higher federal taxes may take hope.

The debt being piled up in fighting for recovery is not yet hopeless. The trade upturn which has been a ray of daylight to many a business man also has begun to put a little lining in your Uncle Sam's fat pocket-book.

His income is increasing, and increasing so healthily that the state of his pocketbook is "rather favorable than not."

Outlook Held Hopeful

You may take the word of L. H. Parker for that. He's chief of staff of the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation, and it's he who supports money like water in fighting the depression. That's but one side of it. The other side is that, as business stagnated, his income fell off sickeningly.

That's the side that's picking up as business picks up. Here's how it works: Miscellaneous internal revenue taxes not including the income tax put $169,776,114 into the federal treasury in October. In August they produced $135,000,000. Compare that with August, 1932, when they produced $64,000,000.

Pickup Shown in Taxes

Take a typical case of such a tax, the tobacco tax. The rate hasn't been changed for years. Therefore, the proceeds from it make a pretty good index of business. In August, 1933, it netted Uncle Sam $40,700,000, compared to $35,500,000 in August 1932.

That's a better than $5,000,000 dividend to Uncle Sam through business recovery in a single month, and it's been increasing steadily ever since April.

The playing card tax (10 cents a pack) netted $201,000 in August, 1933, compared to $201,000 in August, 1932, nearly double.

That gives you a picture of how Uncle Sam stands to gain from every increase in business that he can foster.

Harvest From Liquor

Very soon now, further income

U. S. TREASURY

U. S. Revenues Increase

Hopeful of the state of government revenue, L. H. Parker, left, chief of staff of the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation, tells how increased business has brought encouraging increases in Uncle Sam's income. The graph shows rise in Uncle Sam's debt from the happy pre-war days when there practically wasn't any, through the war-time peak in 1919, and back almost to that level today. . . . note also the prospect for an all-time debt high within the next two years.

Chairman Has to Climb Fire-Escape to Reach Chamber

"Kingfish" in Real Danger as New Orleans Boss Deserts Him

'COWARD' IS HURLED Chairman Connally, Showing Up Late, Makes Louisianans Angry

NEW ORLEANS, La.—(AP)—Senator Tom Connally, of Texas, chairman of the senate committee investigating the election of Senator John Overton, was forced to climb a fire-escape and go through an unstairs window to reach the committee room in the Scottish Rite cathedral Thursday as hundreds of persons massed in front of the building for resumption of the election hearing.

As Senator Connally climbed through the window he found himself in the ladies' washroom, but committee attaches quickly steered him through the building into the hearing chamber.

Other officials and newsmen were forced to follow Connally's lead up the fire-escape and through the window.

Among them was Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the Women's Committee of Louisiana, seeking the ouster from office of Senators Long and Overton.

It was decided to admit only sufficient spectators to fill the seats in the chamber.

New Orleans Charges

NEW ORLEANS.—(AP)—Charges of slandering, jailing and crowding out of ballots were laid before the special senate committee investigating Senator John H. Overton's election Wednesday by a string of witnesses produced by Francis William, a New Orleans political leader.

The committee settled down to the taking of testimony after a stormy opening precipitated by a statement of Senator Tom Connally, (D, Texas), chairman, who arrived from Texas and took charge of the investigation on the third day. The Texas senator sought to explain that he had not deliberately remained away from the hearing as charged by the committee's investigator, John G. Holland, and that he was not afraid to conduct the inquiry.

"About my being afraid," said the chairman, "the only person afraid of this investigation are you cowards in Louisiana."

Louisiana Is Mad

He got no further as the spectators arose with a roar and shouted denials and denunciations at the chairman. One spectator dared the senator to come outside and men and women voiced their resentment at his remark.

Burt Henry, president of the Honest Election League, the withdrawal from the investigation with the statement they had no confidence in the committee, walked down the center aisle exclaiming:

"Where do you get that coward stuff?"

Chairman Connally sought vainly to quell the disturbance, calling for order and pounding the gavel until it broke at the head, and the gavel's head jumped into the water pitcher.

Police guards who were stationed in the room moved among the crowd and sought to quiet them.

Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the women's committee of Louisiana, which is seeking to un-

(Continued on Page Three)

Markets

Hope Cotton Exchange

New York Cotton
Open High Low Close
Dec. 10.03 10.20 10.00 10.19-20
March 10.26 10.43 10.23 10.2-43
Up 14 points from previous close.

New Orleans Cotton
Dec. 10.00 10.15 9.96 10.13-14
March 10.21 10.39 10.20 10.3-4
Up 14 points from previous close.
Chicago Grain

Wheat—
May 89 1/2 91 1/2 88 91 1/2
Dec. 93 94 1/2 91 1/2 94 1/2
Corn—
Dec. 47 1/2-48 1/2 48 1/2 48 1/2
May 51 1/2 51 1/2 50 1/2 51 1/2
Oats—
Dec. 35 1/2 35 1/2 33 1/2 35 1/2
May 38 1/2 39 37 39

Closing Stock Quotations
American Can 34 1/2
Am. Tel. & Tel. 120 1/2
Anaconda 10 1/2
Chrysler 43 1/2
General Motors 32 1/2
Missouri Pacific 5 1/2
Secony Vacuum 16 1/4
U. S. Steel 48 1/2
Standard Oil, N. J. 46 1/2

Transfer of R.F.C. Men to Projects Gets Under Way

100,000 Off Relief Rolls in Texas—110,000 Slated in Arkansas

REGISTER AT ONCE Bert Keith Warns Unemployed to Get on File for Local Jobs

WASHINGTON — (AP) — An estimate from Secretary Purkins that an additional 85,000 persons found employment in October was issued simultaneously Thursday with a call for a White House conference on relief for women, to be presided over by Mrs. Roosevelt.

Emergency Relief and Civil Workers Administrator Hopkins announced a parley as part of the administration's effort to put 4 million men back to work by December 16.

Hopkins stated that 100,000 were transferred Thursday from the relief rolls in Texas, with smaller transfers elsewhere.

Arkansas expects to take 111,000 off the relief rolls by December 16, he said.

Unemployed Must Register

An announcement elsewhere in today's Star by Bert Keith, national employment agent for Hempstead county, warns unemployed persons that to obtain relief work on the forthcoming local road program, and other local projects, they must register at his office in the Arkansas Bank & Trust Co. building.

British Move for German Equality

Simon Dispatched to Geneva on New Arms Conference Mission

By the Associated Press.

Interest in international disarmament, which has been weak since Germany withdrew from the arms conference last month, was awakened throughout Europe Thursday when Great Britain ordered Sir John Simon, foreign secretary, to Geneva.

Simon is to attempt a renewal of the arms discussion in a manner in which Germany can be induced to participate.

Raskob Rumored for U. S. Treasury

Al Smith May Become Senator, and Farley New York Governor

NEW YORK.—The real significance of the visit of former Governor Alfred B. Smith to Washington, D. C., when he conferred with President Roosevelt Tuesday was revealed exclusively to the New York News Wednesday night.

It concerned not only the appointment of Smith's long-time friend, James J. Farley, as collector of internal revenue for the second district of New York, but the following shifts in the Democratic political alignment:

1. Resignation of William H. Woodin as secretary of the Treasury, and appointment of John J. Raskob, former Democratic national chairman, as Woodin's successor.
2. Resignation of Jesse Isidor Straus as United States ambassador to France and appointment of United States Senator Royal S. Copeland as his successor.
3. Appointment by Governor Lehman of Al Smith as United States senator from New York.
4. Designation of James A. Farley, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, as the next Democratic candidate as governor of New York to succeed Governor Lehman who will not seek re-nomination. In this latter designation, Farley will have the unqualified support of Smith.

Through such an arrangement, marking the end of a long-standing feud between Smith and Farley, it is hoped to circumvent the advantage gained by the Republican-fascists in the recent election of Fiorello H. La Guardia to New York city's mayoralty and to rebuild the tattered Democratic city machine.

It means ouster of John F. Curry as the leader of Tammany hall, according to the information supplied Wednesday night. With him will go John H. McCooey, veteran Tammany boss of Brooklyn.

The entire shift was made possible through the reported intention of Ambassador Straus to resign because of ill health.

Leffel Gentry Is Given State Job

Hope Attorney Employed on Special Highway Claims

Leffel Gentry, formerly of this city, has been employed to assist in handling suits and other legal matters in connection with settlement of highway contractors' claims against the state and set-off claims in favor of the state, it was learned Thursday.

Mr. Gentry has been employed by Walter L. Pope of Little Rock, who is in charge of litigation growing out of the state highway audit.

Mr. Gentry is to be paid a salary of $150 a month from the special appropriation made by the 1933 legislature to follow up litigation resulting from the first highway audit.

Search Abandoned for Missing Ship

Three Vessels Quit Rescue Attempt—27 Men May Be Lost

VALENTIA, Irish Free State.—(AP)—The seaplane Manchester Regiment Thursday abandoned her 24-hour search for the stricken freighter Saxinby, after the great liner Berengaria and the Dutch steamer Boschdyk also were forced to quit their rescue efforts.

The ships failed to find a trace of the missing vessel or her crew of 27 who took to the open sea in life-boats.

U. S. Revenues Increase

Hopeful of the state of government revenue, L. H. Parker, left, chief of staff of the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation, tells how increased business has brought encouraging increases in Uncle Sam's income. The graph shows rise in Uncle Sam's debt from the happy pre-war days when there practically wasn't any, through the war-time peak in 1919, and back almost to that level today. . . . note also the prospect for an all-time debt high within the next two years.

Chairman Has to Climb Fire-Escape to Reach Chamber

"Kingfish" in Real Danger as New Orleans Boss Deserts Him

'COWARD' IS HURLED Chairman Connally, Showing Up Late, Makes Louisianans Angry

NEW ORLEANS, La.—(AP)—Senator Tom Connally, of Texas, chairman of the senate committee investigating the election of Senator John Overton, was forced to climb a fire-escape and go through an unstairs window to reach the committee room in the Scottish Rite cathedral Thursday as hundreds of persons massed in front of the building for resumption of the election hearing.

As Senator Connally climbed through the window he found himself in the ladies' washroom, but committee attaches quickly steered him through the building into the hearing chamber.

Other officials and newsmen were forced to follow Connally's lead up the fire-escape and through the window.

Among them was Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the Women's Committee of Louisiana, seeking the ouster from office of Senators Long and Overton.

It was decided to admit only sufficient spectators to fill the seats in the chamber.

New Orleans Charges

NEW ORLEANS.—(AP)—Charges of slandering, jailing and crowding out of ballots were laid before the special senate committee investigating Senator John H. Overton's election Wednesday by a string of witnesses produced by Francis William, a New Orleans political leader.

The committee settled down to the taking of testimony after a stormy opening precipitated by a statement of Senator Tom Connally, (D, Texas), chairman, who arrived from Texas and took charge of the investigation on the third day. The Texas senator sought to explain that he had not deliberately remained away from the hearing as charged by the committee's investigator, John G. Holland, and that he was not afraid to conduct the inquiry.

"About my being afraid," said the chairman, "the only person afraid of this investigation are you cowards in Louisiana."

Louisiana Is Mad

He got no further as the spectators arose with a roar and shouted denials and denunciations at the chairman. One spectator dared the senator to come outside and men and women voiced their resentment at his remark.

Burt Henry, president of the Honest Election League, the withdrawal from the investigation with the statement they had no confidence in the committee, walked down the center aisle exclaiming:

"Where do you get that coward stuff?"

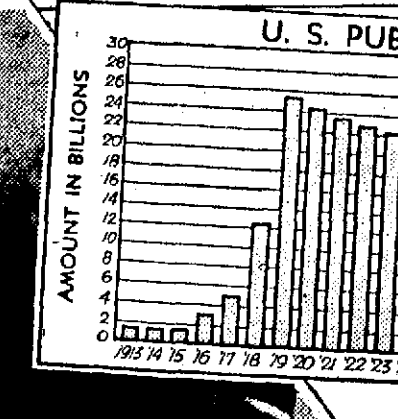

Chairman Connally sought vainly to quell the disturbance, calling for order and pounding the gavel until it broke at the head, and the gavel's head jumped into the water pitcher.

Police guards who were stationed in the room moved among the crowd and sought to quiet them.

Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the women's committee of Louisiana, which is seeking to un-

(Continued on Page Three)

U. S. Revenues Increase

Healthy Gain Means Reduction of Debts

The National Government's Financial Picture Looks Brighter

WASHINGTON—Taxpayers who vision the government as wading into a hopeless swamp of debt needn't be unduly alarmed. Taxpayers who see the future as an endless parade of higher and higher federal taxes may take hope.

The debt being piled up in fighting for recovery is not yet hopeless. The trade upturn which has been a ray of daylight to many a business man also has begun to put a little lining in your Uncle Sam's fat pocket-book.

His income is increasing, and increasing so healthily that the state of his pocketbook is "rather favorable than not."

Outlook Held Hopeful

You may take the word of L. H. Parker for that. He's chief of staff of the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation, and it's he who supports money like water in fighting the depression. That's but one side of it. The other side is that, as business stagnated, his income fell off sickeningly.

That's the side that's picking up as business picks up. Here's how it works: Miscellaneous internal revenue taxes not including the income tax put $169,776,114 into the federal treasury in October. In August they produced $135,000,000. Compare that with August, 1932, when they produced $64,000,000.

Pickup Shown in Taxes

Take a typical case of such a tax, the tobacco tax. The rate hasn't been changed for years. Therefore, the proceeds from it make a pretty good index of business. In August, 1933, it netted Uncle Sam $40,700,000, compared to $35,500,000 in August 1932.

That's a better than $5,000,000 dividend to Uncle Sam through business recovery in a single month, and it's been increasing steadily ever since April.

The playing card tax (10 cents a pack) netted $201,000 in August, 1933, compared to $201,000 in August, 1932, nearly double.

That gives you a picture of how Uncle Sam stands to gain from every increase in business that he can foster.

Harvest From Liquor

Very soon now, further income

U. S. TREASURY

Chairman Has to Climb Fire-Escape to Reach Chamber

"Kingfish" in Real Danger as New Orleans Boss Deserts Him

'COWARD' IS HURLED Chairman Connally, Showing Up Late, Makes Louisianans Angry

NEW ORLEANS, La.—(AP)—Senator Tom Connally, of Texas, chairman of the senate committee investigating the election of Senator John Overton, was forced to climb a fire-escape and go through an unstairs window to reach the committee room in the Scottish Rite cathedral Thursday as hundreds of persons massed in front of the building for resumption of the election hearing.

As Senator Connally climbed through the window he found himself in the ladies' washroom, but committee attaches quickly steered him through the building into the hearing chamber.

Other officials and newsmen were forced to follow Connally's lead up the fire-escape and through the window.

Among them was Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the Women's Committee of Louisiana, seeking the ouster from office of Senators Long and Overton.

It was decided to admit only sufficient spectators to fill the seats in the chamber.

New Orleans Charges

NEW ORLEANS.—(AP)—Charges of slandering, jailing and crowding out of ballots were laid before the special senate committee investigating Senator John H. Overton's election Wednesday by a string of witnesses produced by Francis William, a New Orleans political leader.

The committee settled down to the taking of testimony after a stormy opening precipitated by a statement of Senator Tom Connally, (D, Texas), chairman, who arrived from Texas and took charge of the investigation on the third day. The Texas senator sought to explain that he had not deliberately remained away from the hearing as charged by the committee's investigator, John G. Holland, and that he was not afraid to conduct the inquiry.

"About my being afraid," said the chairman, "the only person afraid of this investigation are you cowards in Louisiana."

Louisiana Is Mad

He got no further as the spectators arose with a roar and shouted denials and denunciations at the chairman. One spectator dared the senator to come outside and men and women voiced their resentment at his remark.

Burt Henry, president of the Honest Election League, the withdrawal from the investigation with the statement they had no confidence in the committee, walked down the center aisle exclaiming:

"Where do you get that coward stuff?"

Chairman Connally sought vainly to quell the disturbance, calling for order and pounding the gavel until it broke at the head, and the gavel's head jumped into the water pitcher.

Police guards who were stationed in the room moved among the crowd and sought to quiet them.

Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the women's committee of Louisiana, which is seeking to un-

(Continued on Page Three)

Markets

Hope Cotton Exchange

New York Cotton
Open High Low Close
Dec. 10.03 10.20 10.00 10.19-20
March 10.26 10.43 10.23 10.2-43
Up 14 points from previous close.

New Orleans Cotton
Dec. 10.00 10.15 9.96 10.13-14
March 10.21 10.39 10.20 10.3-4
Up 14 points from previous close.
Chicago Grain

Wheat—
May 89 1/2 91 1/2 88 91 1/2
Dec. 93 94 1/2 91 1/2 94 1/2
Corn—
Dec. 47 1/2-48 1/2 48 1/2 48 1/2
May 51 1/2 51 1/2 50 1/2 51 1/2
Oats—
Dec. 35 1/2 35 1/2 33 1/2 35 1/2
May 38 1/2 39 37 39

Closing Stock Quotations
American Can 34 1/2
Am. Tel. & Tel. 120 1/2
Anaconda 10 1/2
Chrysler 43 1/2
General Motors 32 1/2
Missouri Pacific 5 1/2
Secony Vacuum 16 1/4
U. S. Steel 48 1/2
Standard Oil, N. J. 46 1/2

Myers New Head Farm Credit Body

Hope Star

O Justice, Deliver Thy Herald From False Report!

Published every week-day afternoon by the Star Publishing Co., Inc.
C. E. Palmer & Alex. H. Washburn, at The Star building, 212-214 South Walnut street, Hope, Arkansas.

C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Hope, Arkansas
Under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription Rates (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per month $1.00; six months $5.25; one year $9.00. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and Lafayette counties, $3.50 per year; elsewhere $5.00.

"The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, through widely circulated advertisements, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."—Col. R. R. McCormick.

Member of The Associated Press: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

Charges on Tributes, Etc.: Charges will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions, memorials, concerning the departed. Commercial resolutions held to this policy in the news columns to protect their readers from a deluge of space-taking memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility for the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN Washington

Administration Glimpses Bitter Pill in Defeat of McKee... Bullitt Gets Last Laugh as Livinoff Comes...
Hepburns to Rejoice if He Loses Job
Ford Gets One "Break."

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—The White House can't laugh off the defeat of "Holy Joe" McKee in New York.

But there's the good old consolation that the experience might have been worse. Once it had been intended to make McKee the official administration candidate instead of just the fellow who everybody knew was the administration candidate.

Jim Farley, Roosevelt's political overlord, and Boss Ed Flynn of the Bronx were as close as two loops on a pretzel during the Roosevelt nomination fight. Months ago they decided to run McKee, but Tammany's Mayor O'Brien looked weak and then take control of New York for Roosevelt.

They had a night conference with Roosevelt, and McKee announced his candidacy. Fusionist leaders came from New York and Roosevelt began to worry about the progressives in Congress, who favored LaGuardia, and his Fusionist friends in New York.

He backed away from a hot spot to preserve official neutrality. But Farley and Professor Moley, his chief publicist, left no doubt as to the master's wishes.

All that's lost is a little political prestige. Since McKee ran ahead of O'Brien, Farley and Flynn will try to take over the New York City Democratic organization for Roosevelt.

Political parties won't be used. Chi-ca or political jobs won't be open for Tammany men.

Bullitt Laughs Last

Livinoff notes: Department of Justice agents had information—probably cockeyed—that "White" Russians might take a pot shot at the commissioner.
Hence the extraordinary police and secret service guard at all times. The corridor outside Secretary Hull's office was blocked off for the first time ever.
Reports that Livinoff requested heavy guard were erroneous. American officials insisted.

Bill Bullitt, special assistant to Hull, was grinning from ear to ear as he the time thereafter. Why not host of helped welcome Livinoff and most of years before. His superiors laughed at him when he predicted, after a Russian mission, that the Soviet Union would last.

Workmen decorated the lawn of Boris Skivinsky's house, where Livinoff stayed, with red flags warning of their digging. But there were no red decorations at the White House luncheon. Just yellow chrysanthemums and asparagus sprig.

Glad If He Loses Job

"Oh, good!" exclaimed Federal Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins, in effect, as he figured out that success of the new plan to employ 4,000,000 persons immediately with public works funds would lose him his job.

"If this works, we're out—finis!" he grinned. Hopkins, incidentally, left his $100,000 job administering New York state relief to accept $8500 home.
He also is happy because if eight or nine million people are taken from relief rolls, relief workers no longer will have an excuse to pry into their private affairs.

"Breaks" for Ford

Chairman Bob Wagner of the National Labor Board didn't really mean to give Henry Ford such a complete whitewash in asserting that Ford's position on collective bargaining was satisfactory.

But he was angry at Administrator Hugh Johnson because Johnson had precipitated his own public row with Ford on the issue while the board was trying to negotiate a Ford plant strike settlement.

So he let it ride.

(Copyright, 1933, NEA Service, Inc.)

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

By Alicia Hart

Consider Your Shoe in Taking Steps to Daintiness

No woman can be truly dainty unless she gives her shoes and stockings meticulous care.

Washing stockings every night and wearing a fresh pair each day is practically a universal habit now.

There probably isn't a woman in the country who would think of wearing a pair of hose the second day without washing them.

However, the same woman who slips into clean stockings every morning will contradict her daintiness habits

YOUR CHILDREN

By Olive Roberts Barton

©1933 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

"Jimmy, aren't you ashamed of not fishing kitty out of the fountain when that bad boy threw her in? You had to run and call mother, and I just got her in time."

Jimmy said nothing. He merely shivered. Water in bulk always made him shiver. Even the bathtub could only have a very few inches of water in it when he took a bath.

Another time his mother said, "Why don't you get your baseball bat and learn to play ball? There's nothing to be afraid of—the ball won't hit you."

Jimmy, according to his parents, was a coward. He was afraid of water, afraid of a ball, afraid of height, of a rough game with the boys, of almost everything.

Coward by Comparison
The worst of it was that right next door lived Harry, a rough and tumble little fellow who was afraid of nothing on earth. He could climb to impossible places and then stand on his head. He was so tough he could eat halls and so brave he would have gone bare-fisted at a lion if he had the chance.

Every day Jimmy was compared to his doughty neighbor. And Harry had learned to scoff and call Jimmy "fraidy cat" and now all the fellows called him that too.

He was very wretched and unhappy.
He tried to fight his cowardice, but on the few occasions when he proved his worth, and screwed up his courage in some desperate attempt to better his reputation, he always got sick afterward.

One day his father was playing golf with Dr. Smith. "Say, Doc," he said,
"how do you cure a kid of the jitters?
That boy of mine is the big disappointment of my life. He turns green with fear at the least little thing. I think his mother babied him too much, or else he was scared about things when he was a baby. He's been sick a lot and he had a hard time getting a start—do you remember?
Do you suppose it would help any if I took him to one of those psycho-whade-you-call-em chaps and get it all talked out of him?"

Health Secret of Courage

Dr. Smith put his score card in his pocket and lighted a cigarette. "Maybe," he said. "But do you know, after all Jimmy has had it would be a miracle, I think, if he had much physical courage. I'm beginning to agree with some of these new medical men who think that a good many of the virtues, including bravery, depend on healthy gland action. We have all sorts of deep-seated mysterious glands in our bodies and heads, that seem to be distasters of how we feel and how we act. Health, my dear man, good, strong, brute health is the secret of a lot of things."

"Don't ride your boy too hard.
Don't call him a coward. He can't help it and it won't improve things any.
If you build him up and go about this courage business from a different angle, I think you'll find him more normal later on. No use raking him feel too bad about something he absolutely can't help. Give him a hand-up, encourage him. Tell him he's a swell fellow."

Somehow Jimmy's dad felt ashamed.
He had a lot of resentment to make by giving her shoes little or no attention.

Of course they should be shined at least twice a week. And such shoes have to be brushed every day. But what about the insides of them? Is the lining discolored? If it is, armed with cleaning fluid and a rough cloth, you can erase the stains of your negligence in about three minutes.

Each pair of shoes should have its own shoe trees. And put the trees in the shoes each time you take them off. That simple gesture keeps them in shape until they are worn out.

Shoes should be aired in the sun a couple of times a week. And party shippers never should be put away in their little bags until they have been aired.

There are hard cotton pads which fit into the toes of party slippers. You can make them yourself and stuff into the toe of each slipper. They'll go far toward keeping the slippers dainty and in their original shape.

NEXT: More daintiness habits for winter beauty.

Try Something Classical

Musical (after much pressing):
"Well, all right, since you insist.
What shall I play?"

Her:—"Anything you like. It is only to annoy the neighbors."—Buen Humor (Madrid).

Well, Look What New York Did!

Shover Springs

Syrup making and getting wood is the order of the day.

The singing at this place was well attended. There were singers present from Sutton, Hope, Little Rock and other places.

Oral Reed of Long Beach, Calif., called to see Jack Rogers and Mrs.
Rogers at the home of his mother,
Mrs. Charles Rogers, Sunday night.

Mrs. Lee England and Miss La Veta England spent Friday afternoon with Miss Marjorie Byers.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Phillips and children and Howard Owens of Delight spent the week end with their sister, Mrs. Charles Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Lewallen of near Hope spent Sunday with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Collier and attended singing at this place.

Mrs. Roy Rogers and children and Miss Mable and Mrs. Mollie Talley were shopping in Hope Saturday afternoon.

Roy Rogers was a business visitor in El Dorado Friday and Saturday. J.
Jack Rogers and Mrs. Rogers of El Dorado spent the week end with their mother, Mrs. Charles Rogers and brother, Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Lasater and little son, Donald Jr., spent Sunday with their father, John Lasater and brother Hugh and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haynes of Washington attending singing here Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McWilliams spent last Friday with Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Pickard at Rocky Mound.

Miss Allen Walker spent Thursday with Mrs. Rastus Aaron.

Mrs. Robert Byers and Mrs. J. B.
Beckworth spent Tuesday with Mrs.
Early McWilliams and Mrs. Alderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ozie Reese and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gentry were dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reese and spent the afternoon with their brother, Mr. and Mrs.
Gady Reese.

Mrs. J. S. Reed and Miss Jimmie Givens were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert spent from Tuesday until Saturday with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Darwin and family.

Miss Forest Ruggles who works in the Ladies Specialty Shop at Hope, spent Sunday with home folks.

J. B. Beckworth spent the business trip to Texarkana last Saturday.

Mrs. Bryan Ruggles spent Tuesday evening with Mrs. Early McWilliams.
Mr. and Mrs. Silas Sanford and Willie Cobb spent a white Tuesday night

Harmony

Hog killing is the order of the day at this place.

Health is very good at present except colds.

Mrs. Ella Hodnett and Mr. and Mrs.
Kermit Mitchell and baby spent Sunday at the Thad Vines home. Mr. and Mrs. Roy McWilliams and baby, called at the same place in the afternoon.

Miss Farrell Mitchell spent the week end at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hoyet Lester and Mr. Lasater of Shover Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. George McMillen and children were pleasant Sunday visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs.
Joe Daugherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogers and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sanford.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Milton
Reagers of Hope in our community.

Mrs. Bessie Vines and children,
Howard and Virginia, and Mrs. Harley Rogers, spent Saturday afternoon at the home of McMillen home. Mrs.
Violet Daugherty was also a visitor
there.

Mrs. J. W. McWilliams was a pleasant Wednesday afternoon caller with Mrs. Irene McMillen, and Mrs. H. P.
McWilliams.

Little De Vaughn McMillen who had the misfortune of getting his leg broken by a fall is improving slowly.

Joe Daugherty and George McMillen called on Ralph Rogers Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Will Rogers of El Dorado and Mrs. Molly Tully have recently moved to the home of her son, on the Hope Lumber Co., farm.

To All Unemployed Men of Hempstead County:

I wish to impress upon you the importance of your coming to my office and registering as an unemployed of Hempstead county.

Judge Stephens is expecting to put on a Road Program in each township in the county within the next few days. If you are not registered in this office or on the Work Relief Rolls of the Relief Office and are able to work, you will not get any benefits from the large amounts of money that will be spent for work in your township this winter.

The work will be given to people who are in the most needy circumstances first, but understand you do not have to be on the Work Relief Rolls or the Direct Relief Rolls known as the RFC to be qualified to register in this office, but all parties registered with the RFC for work and are able to work should register in this office.

BERT KEITH

National Re-employment Agent, Hempstead County, Arkansas

Football Nearing Its Final Round

Hot Springs Meets El Dorado, and Little Rock Plays Pine Bluff

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—The fur will fly in the high school football jungle this week and with two title contenders likely to fall by the wayside.

The Hot Springs Trojans will play hosts to the El Dorado Wildcats Friday afternoon in one of the headliners, while the ancient feud between Little Rock and Pine Bluff will be renewed Saturday afternoon in the Zebra city.

Both tussles will have a bearing on the championship, while Fordyce, still in the running despite its defeat last week by El Dorado, will meet Camden.

Hot Springs will have its full strength in the lineup against the Wildcats. A victory for the Trojans would give them a new lease on life, while a defeat would virtually eliminate them from the race.

Likewise, Little Rock and Pine Bluff—in addition to discharging obligations engendered in their long rivalry—will be fighting for a chance to stay in the race.

Fordyce, on the face of season's results should win but Camden always is a tough foe for Fordyce.

North Little Rock, greatly improved since the season started, entertains Fort Smith. The Grizzlies also have been coming along at a fast clip, and unless Little Rock is able to stop them a week hence, they will have almost as good a claim for the title as El Dorado, since neither was booked against a majority of the contenders.

... watch him go!

Defeat Disastrous
Then there's this angle: State adherents have come to view as a mistake the placing of the Michigan game as the third on the schedule. . . . If the game were later, Ohio could take a defeat without it being so disastrous, either artistically or financially. St.
John has agreed to the third game theory with the idea of assuring at least one big crowd per season, but now he is beginning to come around to the idea that Michigan should be played later.

But Mister Yost of Michigan will have a lot to say about that, as he has been strong for the third game setup
... and why not? . . . with the great teams Michigan has been enjoying.

Maybe, Williamson is slated to get the ax after this season. . . . Then we come to the question: Who will succeed him? . . . The job used to pay $5500 . . . but took a fat cut a year or so ago. . . . How many famous coaches would rush into the Ohio hotbed at these prices?

What Price Flint and Steel?
Mrs. Newrich had given the landscape artist carte blanche and he was showing her over the formal garden.
"What is that?" she asked. He told her it was a sundial. "What's a sundial?" He patiently explained how the sun moving through the heavens cast a shadow which is recorded on the dial, indicating the time of day. Mrs.
Newrich beamed with interest.

"My goodness," she exclaimed,
"these modern inventions! What will they be thinking of next?"—Montreal Star.

Higher Education
Extract from a letter received by a mother from her daughter at college:
"I realize, mother, that daddy is paying a lot to keep me at school and that I must try and learn something.
I am taking up contract."—Boston Transcript.

Real Mexican Chili
15c
Biggest bowl in town
Quart 40c—Pint 25c
Mission Barbecue Inn

Specials For FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

FOLGER'S COFFEE, lb. . . . . 33c
POTATOES—10 lbs. . . . . 25c.

Apples—fancy Jonathan, each 1c
Palmolive Soap—2 bars 15c
Tomatoes—3 No. 2 cans 25c
Pork-Beans—Campbell's, can . 7½c

COFFEE, bulk, lb. . . . . 10c
LEMONS, doz. . . . . 18c
COCOA, 2 lb. can. . . . . 24c
TISSUE—4 rolls . . . . . 25c

—MEAT MARKET SPECIALS—
PORK CHOPS—pound . . . . . 15c
STEAK, lb. . . . . 10c
STEW, lb. . . . . 5c
SAUSAGE, lb. . . . . 10c
CHILI, lb. . . . . 18c
CREAMERY BUTTER—pound . . . . . 25c

CHEESE, lb. . . . . 18c
HAM, whole, lb. . . . . 10c
ROAST BEEF, lb. . . . . 8c
Pork Roast, lb. . . . . 12½c

R. V. Stephenson
GROCERY AND MARKET
Phone 601 Free Delivery

Magnolia Meets Teachers Friday

Henderson Leads Conference, With Russellville Close Second

MAGNOLIA, Ark.—After suffering
two successive defeats, the Magnolia
A. & M. Mulriders will meet the Arkansas State Teachers Bear football team here Friday in an effort to check their losing streak.

Full force practice was held Monday afternoon as the squad set to work to prepare for the Teachers. No serious injuries were sustained in the Hendrix game last week.

The Mulriders are hoping to get revenge for the 3 to 0 defeat the Bears handed them last year. This will be the last home game.

By defeating the Arkansas Tech
Wonder Boys last Friday, the Ouachita Tigers came a game closer to the Henderson Reddies who still lead the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference.
The Monticello Bollweevils climbed up several notches by winning over the Jonesboro Indians.

The stand at present is:

Team	W	L	T
Henderson	3	0	0
Ouachita	3	0	0
Monticello	2	1	1
Magnolia	2	2	0
Arkansas Tech	1	2	0
Jonesboro	1	2	0
Teachers	1	4	0
Little Rock	0	2	0

Germany prohibits its newspapers from analyzing the country's finances.
Red influences have been wiped out of everything German except the budget.

Hickory Shade

Woodcutting and hauling is the order of the day in these parts.
Sunday school was well attended Sunday.

Brother Ross delivered two splendid sermons Sunday and Sunday night to a large and attentive crowd.

Mrs. Carnes spent Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Minto Ross.
Miss Gene Rogers and brother Herchel were Saturday night guests of their sister, Mrs. J. L. Willette.

Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Kennie Easter-ling spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs.
Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Minto Ross entertained the young people of this community with a party Friday night everyone reported a good time.

A number of people from Hickory
Shade attended the singing at DeAnn Sunday afternoon. A large crowd was present and the singing was splendid.
Leroy Easterling is visiting his brother and sister, Mrs. Mabel Sims and Kennie Easterling.

Grandpa and Grandma Ross spent Monday night with his son Lee and family.

BROADCASTING
news of savings for every woman.

Time in on KTHS
9:00 to 9:15 a. m.
Or Station KLRH
9:15 to 9:30 a. m.
for news of the famous

Rexall 1c Sale
JOHN S. GIBSON
Drug Company
"The Rexall Store"

AT REPHAN'S SALE! CINDERELLA FINE SHOES

Our very finest $4.98 styles—all new—all smart! Pumps, Ties, Oxfords, Suedes and kid leather. All sizes. A to C widths.

$3.97

Seasonable Items For Men at Penney's

Tip-Top Hip Boots
For Men—Pair $3.98

Men's Wool Boot Sox
Pair 39c

Men's 10% Wool Mixed
Unions—38 to 46 $1.49

Corduroy Caps
For Men 49c

Boot Pants—Corduroy
Or Whip Cord Good Selection $2.98

Men's Sheep Lined Coats
Moleskin with Wambio Collar $3.49

Men's Dommet Flannel Shirts
Grey or Khaki 98c

No. 2514 Heavy Work Shoe
Double Sole Double Row of Tacks $2.98

MRS. SID HENRY

TELEPHONE 321

Oh, a wonderful stream is the River Time,
As it runs through the realm of tears.
With a faultless rhythm and a musical rhyme,
And a boundless sweep and a surge sublime,
As it blends with the Ocean of Years.

There's a magical isle up the river of time,
Where the softest of airs are playing;
There's a cloudless sky and a tropical climate,
And a song as sweet as a vesper chime,
And the June's with the roses are straying.

And the name of that isle is the Long Ago,
And we bury our treasures there;
And the brows of beauty and bosoms of snow;
There are heaps of dust—but we loved them so!
There are trinkets and tresses of hair.

Oh, remember for aye be the blessed Isle,
All the day of our life until night;
When the evening comes with its beautiful smile,
And our eyes are closing to slumber awhile,
May that "Green Wood" of Soul be in sight!—Selected.
(By special request)

Jimmie Harbin a senior in Hendrix College, Conway, will arrive Thursday night for a week-end visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harbin and grandmother, Mrs. Florence Turner.

Friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. O. J. Moberly whose death occurred in her home in Texarkana on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Moberly and family were former residents of this city. Mrs. Moberly having been president of the local Red Cross unit during the World war, at which time the Hempstead county chapter did outstanding work under her leadership. She was a member of St. Mark's Episcopal church and very active in church work, moving to Texarkana about 12 years ago. She has been an invalid for the past five or six years, but continued to be interested in her former friends and kept in touch with the progress of time. The funeral services were held at the family residence in Texarkana at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

On Wednesday November 15, the 2479 chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution held open meetings, the program for entertainment varied in each chapter. The John Cain chapter, D. A. R. met Wednesday evening at the city hall, with Mrs. R. T. White regent, presiding and Mrs. Charles Haynes as program chairman. Mrs. White stated that a change had been made in the original program at which time a message from the president general of the national society, Mrs. Russell William Magna was to have been broadcast, on account of failing to connect with the NBC this had been canceled, and Miss Mamie Twitchell read a message from Mrs. Magna. Mrs. Haynes then introduced the speaker for the evening, E. F. McFaddin, who made a 25 minute address on "Armistice Day." Mr. McFaddin stated that in order to get the real thrill out of Armistice day, one would have to revert to the first armistice, when the prime thought moving on that occasion was that war had been wiped out forever. But the course of time was fast revealing the real meaning of that armistice, "The temporary ceasing of hostilities." In resources of the government would carry it.

But up to now, the debt of 23 billions is nearly three billions short of the debt we piled up fighting in the World war. And that was well under control within six years, cut down to 16 billions. It was the four-billion-dollar income tax years that did it.

Higher Taxes Faced

So the tremendous debt being piled up by the New Deal isn't an impossible thing to contend with if business—and revenue—come back to anything like normal. But until and unless it does, there is no escape from more and bigger taxes.

The joint committee is working continually on new plans for taxation, many of which will be presented at the next congress.

Elaborate studies are being made to prevent overlapping of federal, state, and local taxes. Senator Bennett Clark (Mo.), leader in the effort to get rid of tax-exempt securities, may make another effort to tax the $40,000,000,000 in securities, mostly state and local, which now are exempt.

Legal precedents and plans are being marshaled to get around the constitutional and moral aspects of this change.

Revive Sales Levy

Senator King (Utah) thinks Congress must raise $5,000,000,000 this session by taxation, and he is studying new plans to get it.

The sales tax undoubtedly will be given another whirl this winter. A desperate effort to plug gaping holes revealed in the income tax by the Senate stock market investigation will be made, but of course such changes can have no effect on this year's revenue.

Most of all, a new phase of taxation is getting attention for really the first time.

"It used to be," says Parker, "that taxation was just the art of plucking the most feathers from the goose with the least squawking."

"Now we have to go much farther than that, and consider the social effects of various forms of proposed taxes."

"Sometimes that aspect is just as important as the revenue-raising side, and it's becoming more important all the time."

CHAIRMAN HAS

(Continued from Page One)

seat both Senator Overton and his ally, Senator Huey P. Long, jumped to her feet and said "the women of Louisiana are no cowards" and announced the women's committee had made definite charges against the senate committee and were willing to "go anywhere to prove them."

The chairman sought to shut her off, but the crowd yelled "tell it to him, Mrs. Hammond!"

Calm finally was restored by Senator M. M. Logan, who had been the butt of the crowd's jibes for two days before Chairman Connally arrived from Texas. Logan diverted the crowd by asking them to stop smoking as it was against the committee rules. He told the angry crowd he was sure they did not mean to be discourteous and appealed to them to be quiet.

Crowd Calms Down

Senator M. M. Logan (D., Ky.) who had conducted the hearing on Monday and Tuesday amid equal disorder, finally calmed the spectators and Senator Connally explained he was not referring to all of the people of Louisiana, but to those who would run around and whisper and were afraid to come before the committee to testify.

Then the witnesses started a march to the stand and before the day ended the committee had heard stories of intimidations at the polls, beatings, jillings, disappearance of a ballot box and other charges against the Overton workers at the polls in the city of New Orleans.

At the close of the day Chairman Connally said the committee would be here for some time yet and hoped to get to the bottom of the charges, which were filed by ex-Senator Edwin Broussard (D., La.) against Senator Overton, also a Democrat, who was elected on the support of Senator Huey P. Long's machine.

Thirty-four states will change their color combinations for their 1934 license plates, and 25 different motifs will be used.

Negro Conference Elects Officials

Education Anniversary to Be Observed Thursday Night

The A. M. E. conference that convened here Wednesday effected the following organization:

The Rev. W. L. Taylor chief secretary, W. M. Lampkin and J. M. Hearn assistants, E. E. Moody conference accountant, M. H. Humphrey, H. A. Floyd and R. A. Arnold, marshals.

The Rev. V. M. Townsend of Okeechobee was made reporter to the daily press, and J. M. Turner, J. D. Davis, George W. Smith, C. V. Stinson to report to the church papers.

Revs. J. W. Stinson, E. E. Moody, J. M. Turner, C. J. Pipkins, G. W. Blakely were elected finance committee. The conference paid a high tribute to the local pastor the Rev. C. J. Pipkins for the new church building here constructed with only a small debt remaining.

The visitors introduced were J. D. Dennis, W. E. Kohlen, O. Sherman, J. L. Moody, A. Harris, A. O. Wilson, L. O. Grady, J. N. Campbell.

Dr. L. L. Berry of New York City secretary of missions addressed the conference. The pastors of the conference reported through the presiding elders, J. W. Stinson, E. E. Moody and J. M. Turner, showing a great increase in membership, finance and otherwise. The roll call showed that one minister had died during the year.

Thursday night will be the education anniversary, and the educational sermon will be preached by the Rev. James Hearn of Arkadelphia. The Rev. W. T. Pope of Helena will preside at the evening service.

De Queen to Play Cats Here Friday

Leopard Team Held to 7-7 Score by Lockesburg Eleven

DE QUEEN, Ark.—A large delegation of students and supporters is planning to accompany the Leopard football team to Hope Friday night where the locals meet the Bobcats in what is expected to be a close game.

The fact that it will be the first opportunity that many of the students have had to attend a night football game, will be an added inducement.

The Leopards have hit their stride and are expected to put up a hard fight against the Bobcats. The team is reported in good shape.

Last week the Leopards were held to a 7 to 7 tie by Lockesburg High School.

Yerger Team to Play Prescott on Friday

The junior football team of Yerger High School will battle the junior black wolves of Prescott here Friday afternoon, starting at 3 o'clock. The game will be played on Yerger athletic field.

It will be the second game of the season for the Yerger juniors. Last Friday the locals defeated an Idabel, Oklahoma, team 66 to 0.

Big Mobilization

The manager of a touring theatrical company wired to the proprietor of the theater in a small town where his company was due to appear.

"Would like to hold rehearsal next Monday afternoon at three. Have your stage manager, carpenter, property man, electrician, and all stage hands present at that hour."

Four hours later he received the following reply: "All right. He'll be there."—Drumheller Mail.

CLEAN CURTAINS

FOR THANKSGIVING

NELSON HUCKINS

May We Politely Suggest

Might Exercise the Goldfish

"But I couldn't give you enough work to keep you occupied."

"Missus, you'd be surprised wot a little it takes to keep me occupied."—Sydney Bulletin.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That in pursuance of the authority and directions contained in the decretal order of the Chancery Court of Hempstead County, made and entered on the 2nd day of November, A. D. 1933 in a certain cause (No. 2668) then pending therein between National Savings & Loan Association complainant, and I. T. Bell, et al, defendants, the undersigned, as Commissioner of said Court, will offer for sale at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door or entrance of the County Courthouse, in which said Court is held, in the County of Hempstead, Town of Washington, Arkansas, within the hours prescribed by law for judicial sales, on Wednesday, the 6th day of December A. D. 1933, the following described real estate, to-wit: Lot Five (5) Block Sixty-four (64) in the City of Hope, Arkansas, Lot Six (6) in Block Sixty-four (64) in the City of Hope, Arkansas, in Hempstead County, Arkansas.

TERMS OF SALE: On a credit of three months, the purchaser being required to execute a bond as required by law and the order and decree of said Court in said cause, with approved security, bearing interest at the rate of 9 per cent per annum from date of sale until paid, and a lien being retained on the premises sold to secure the payment of the purchase money.

Given under my hand this 15th day of November, A. D. 1933.

DALE C. JONES

Commissioner in Chancery.

Nov. 16, 23, 30.

for BILIOUSNESS

Sour stomach

gas and headache

due to CONSTIPATION

TRADE MARK REG.

10¢ 35¢

Help Kidneys

If poorly functioning Kidneys and Bladder make you suffer from Getting Up Night, Nervousness, Rheumatic Pains, Stiffness, Burning, Smarting, Itching, or Acidity try the guaranteed Doctor's Prescription Cystex (50¢-10¢) Must fix you up or money back. Only 10¢ at drugstore.

Cystex*DANCE

For Members of the A. O. U. W. and Their Invited Guests

FRIDAY NIGHT!*ELK CLUB

Following the meeting of the lodge.

Guests Must Have Card to Be Admitted

If you fail to get your invite in the mail, call at the Dixie Barber Shop and get one.

JOE B. HARGIS

Representative

During the past year the A. O. U. W. enrolled 3,000 members in Arkansas. More than $30,500.00 worth of new business was written among adult groups in October alone, with a high record of 257 juvenile members.

HEALTHY GAIN

(Continued from Page One)

crivises the gathering of information on which congressmen later base tax policies.

And Parker feels that, so far as incoming revenue is concerned, the government's situation is "distinctly hopeful."

Today's deficits have two causes. It's not only that Uncle Sam is spending estimates vary. Parker believes it should bring not less than $500,000,000 every year, and some optimistic estimates.

Most of all, a new phase of taxation is getting attention for really the first time.

"It used to be," says Parker, "that taxation was just the art of plucking the most feathers from the goose with the least squawking."

"Now we have to go much farther than that, and consider the social effects of various forms of proposed taxes."

"Sometimes that aspect is just as important as the revenue-raising side, and it's becoming more important all the time."

CHAIRMAN HAS

(Continued from Page One)

seat both Senator Overton and his ally, Senator Huey P. Long, jumped to her feet and said "the women of Louisiana are no cowards" and announced the women's committee had made definite charges against the senate committee and were willing to "go anywhere to prove them."

The chairman sought to shut her off, but the crowd yelled "tell it to him, Mrs. Hammond!"

Calm finally was restored by Senator M. M. Logan, who had been the butt of the crowd's jibes for two days before Chairman Connally arrived from Texas. Logan diverted the crowd by asking them to stop smoking as it was against the committee rules. He told the angry crowd he was sure they did not mean to be discourteous and appealed to them to be quiet.

Crowd Calms Down

Senator M. M. Logan (D., Ky.) who had conducted the hearing on Monday and Tuesday amid equal disorder, finally calmed the spectators and Senator Connally explained he was not referring to all of the people of Louisiana, but to those who would run around and whisper and were afraid to come before the committee to testify.

Then the witnesses started a march to the stand and before the day ended the committee had heard stories of intimidations at the polls, beatings, jillings, disappearance of a ballot box and other charges against the Overton workers at the polls in the city of New Orleans.

At the close of the day Chairman Connally said the committee would be here for some time yet and hoped to get to the bottom of the charges, which were filed by ex-Senator Edwin Broussard (D., La.) against Senator Overton, also a Democrat, who was elected on the support of Senator Huey P. Long's machine.

Thirty-four states will change their color combinations for their 1934 license plates, and 25 different motifs will be used.

U. S. to Construct First Seadrome

If Successful It Will Mean 24-Hour Mail Service to Europe

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Secretary of the Navy, C. G. Messersmith, today announced that the Public Works Administration had allotted $1,000,000 for building a seadrome, a quarter the regular size, 500 miles off the Atlantic coast for experimental purposes.

If the experiment succeeds, Roper said, full-sized seadromes, 1,250 feet long, would be placed at 500-mile intervals across the ocean to Europe.

Roper estimated that about four months would be required to build the demonstration section. The entire air-

Mrs. Mobley Dies, Formerly of Hope

Succumbs Wednesday at Texarkana—Funeral Held Thursday

TEXARKANA.—Mrs. G. J. Mobley, 59, died at 2 a. m. Wednesday at the family home, following a lengthy illness. She one time lived at Hope.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, Russell and Charles Mobley; and a daughter, Mrs. F. D. Sharp of Shreveport.

Funeral services were held at 3 p. m. Thursday from the residence. Rev. W. L. Botkin, of St. James' Episcopal church, will officiate; and burial will be in State Line cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be H. V. Beasley, Thad Bryant, J. E. Ritchie, Kenneth Stuart, J. R. Gunter and Ben Smith.

Honorary pallbearers will be Lynn Smith, Rollin Rodgers, William Temple, T. L. Temple, F. C. Carroll, F. E. Pharr and Stuart Wilson.

Might Exercise the Goldfish

"But I couldn't give you enough work to keep you occupied."

"Missus, you'd be surprised wot a little it takes to keep me occupied."—Sydney Bulletin.

A O U W

OF KANSAS

BURNS

Cooling, soothing Mentholatum relieves the pain. Promotes quicker healing.

MENTHOLATUM

SAENGER

NOW

They were in love... but couldn't get married!

MADGE EVANS
ALICE BRADY
Phillips Holmes
Una Merkel
May Robson
—In—

Beauty FOR SALE

Comedy-News and Colored Cartoon

2

about Cigarettes

There are 6 types of home-grown tobaccos that are best for cigarettes

BRIGHT TOBACCOS
U. S. Types 11, 12, 13, 14.

BURLEY TOBACCO
U. S. Type 31.

SOUTHERN MARYLAND TOBACCO
U. S. Type 32.

U. S. Type 11 is produced in the Piedmont Belt of Virginia and part of North Carolina.

U. S. Type 12 is produced in eastern North Carolina.

U. S. Type 13 grows in South Carolina.

U. S. Type 14 is produced mostly in southern Georgia—a few million pounds in northern Florida and Alabama.

U. S. Type 31 includes what is called White Burley tobacco. It was first produced by George Webb in 1864. It is light in color and body, and is milder than the Burley used for pipes.

U. S. Type 32, Maryland tobacco, is noted for its "burn". In this respect Maryland excels most other tobaccos.

These are the kinds of home-grown tobaccos used for making Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Then Chesterfield adds aromatic Turkish tobacco to give just the right seasoning or spice.

Chesterfield ages these tobaccos for 30 months — 2½ years — to make sure that they are milder and taste better.

2

about Cigarettes

There are 6 types of home-grown tobaccos that are best for cigarettes

BRIGHT TOBACCOS
U. S. Types 11, 12, 13, 14.

BURLEY TOBACCO
U. S. Type 31.

SOUTHERN MARYLAND TOBACCO
U. S. Type 32.

U. S. Type 11 is produced in the Piedmont Belt of Virginia and part of North Carolina.

U. S. Type 12 is produced in eastern North Carolina.

U. S. Type 13 grows in South Carolina.

U. S. Type 14 is produced mostly in southern Georgia—a few million pounds in northern Florida and Alabama.

U. S. Type 31 includes what is called White Burley tobacco. It was first produced by George Webb in 1864. It is light in color and body, and is milder than the Burley used for pipes.

U. S. Type 32, Maryland tobacco, is noted for its "burn". In this respect Maryland excels most other tobaccos.

These are the kinds of home-grown tobaccos used for making Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Then Chesterfield adds aromatic Turkish tobacco to give just the right seasoning or spice.

Chesterfield ages these tobaccos for 30 months — 2½ years — to make sure that they are milder and taste better.

BURNS

Cooling, soothing Mentholatum relieves the pain. Promotes quicker healing.

MENTHOLATUM

SAENGER

NOW

They were in love... but couldn't get married!

MADGE EVANS
ALICE BRADY
Phillips Holmes
Una Merkel
May Robson
—In—

Beauty FOR SALE

Comedy-News and Colored Cartoon

2

about Cigarettes

There are 6 types of home-grown tobaccos that are best for cigarettes

BRIGHT TOBACCOS
U. S. Types 11, 12, 13, 14.

BURLEY TOBACCO
U. S. Type 31.

SOUTHERN MARYLAND TOBACCO
U. S. Type 32.

U. S. Type 11 is produced in the Piedmont Belt of Virginia and part of North Carolina.

U. S. Type 12 is produced in eastern North Carolina.

U. S. Type 13 grows in South Carolina.

U. S. Type 14 is produced mostly in southern Georgia—a few million pounds in northern Florida and Alabama.

U. S. Type 31 includes what is called White Burley tobacco. It was first produced by George Webb in 1864. It is light in color and body, and is milder than the Burley used for pipes.

U. S. Type 32, Maryland tobacco, is noted for its "burn". In this respect Maryland excels most other tobaccos.

These are the kinds of home-grown tobaccos used for making Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Then Chesterfield adds aromatic Turkish tobacco to give just the right seasoning or spice.

Chesterfield ages these tobaccos for 30 months — 2½ years — to make sure that they are milder and taste better.

2

about Cigarettes

There are 6 types of home-grown tobaccos that are best for cigarettes

BRIGHT TOBACCOS
U. S. Types 11, 12, 13, 14.

BURLEY TOBACCO
U. S. Type 31.

SOUTHERN MARYLAND TOBACCO
U. S. Type 32.

U. S. Type 11 is produced in the Piedmont Belt of Virginia and part of North Carolina.

U. S. Type 12 is produced in eastern North Carolina.

U. S. Type 13 grows in South Carolina.

U. S. Type 14 is produced mostly in southern Georgia—a few million pounds in northern Florida and Alabama.

U. S. Type 31 includes what is called White Burley tobacco. It was first produced by George Webb in 1864. It is light in color and body, and is milder than the Burley used for pipes.

U. S. Type 32, Maryland tobacco, is noted for its "burn". In this respect Maryland excels most other tobaccos.

These are the kinds of home-grown tobaccos used for making Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Then Chesterfield adds aromatic Turkish tobacco to give just the right seasoning or spice.

Chesterfield ages these tobaccos for 30 months — 2½ years — to make sure that they are milder and taste better.

BURNS

Cooling, soothing Mentholatum relieves the pain. Promotes quicker healing.

MENTHOLATUM

SAENGER

NOW

They were in love... but couldn't get married!

MADGE EVANS
ALICE BRADY
Phillips Holmes
Una Merkel
May Robson
—In—

Beauty FOR SALE

Comedy-News and Colored Cartoon

2

about Cigarettes

There are 6 types of home-grown tobaccos that are best for cigarettes

BRIGHT TOBACCOS
U. S. Types 11, 12, 13, 14.

BURLEY TOBACCO
U. S. Type 31.

SOUTHERN MARYLAND TOBACCO
U. S. Type 32.

U. S. Type 11 is produced in the Piedmont Belt of Virginia and part of North Carolina.

U. S. Type 12 is produced in eastern North Carolina.

U. S. Type 13 grows in South Carolina.

U. S. Type 14 is produced mostly in southern Georgia—a few million pounds in northern Florida and Alabama.

U. S. Type 31 includes what is called White Burley tobacco. It was first produced by George Webb in 1864. It is light in color and body, and is milder than the Burley used for pipes.

U. S. Type 32, Maryland tobacco, is noted for its "burn". In this respect Maryland excels most other tobaccos.

These are the kinds of home-grown tobaccos used for making Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Then Chesterfield adds aromatic Turkish tobacco to give just the right seasoning or spice.

Chesterfield ages these tobaccos for 30 months — 2½ years — to make sure that they are milder and taste better.

2

about Cigarettes

There are 6 types of home-grown tobaccos that are best for cigarettes

BRIGHT TOBACCOS
U. S. Types 11, 12, 13, 14.

BURLEY TOBACCO
U. S. Type 31.

SOUTHERN MARYLAND TOBACCO
U. S. Type 32.

U. S. Type 11 is produced in the Piedmont Belt of Virginia and part of North Carolina.

U. S. Type 12 is produced in eastern North Carolina.

U. S. Type 13 grows in South Carolina.

U. S. Type 14 is produced mostly in southern Georgia—a few million pounds in northern Florida and Alabama.

U. S. Type 31 includes what is called White Burley tobacco. It was first produced by George Webb in 1864. It is light in color and body, and is milder than the Burley used for pipes.

U. S. Type 32, Maryland tobacco, is noted for its "burn". In this respect Maryland excels most other tobaccos.

These are the kinds of home-grown tobaccos used for making Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Then Chesterfield adds aromatic Turkish tobacco to give just the right seasoning or spice.

Chesterfield ages these tobaccos for 30 months — 2½ years — to make sure that they are milder and taste better.

2

about Cigarettes

There are 6 types of home-grown tobaccos that are best for cigarettes

BRIGHT TOBACCOS
U. S. Types 11, 12, 13, 14.

BURLEY TOBACCO
U. S. Type 31.

SOUTHERN MARYLAND TOBACCO
U. S. Type 32.

U. S. Type 11 is produced in the Piedmont Belt of Virginia and part of North Carolina.

U. S. Type 12 is produced in eastern North Carolina.

U. S. Type 13 grows in South Carolina.

U. S. Type 14 is produced mostly in southern Georgia—a few million pounds in northern Florida and Alabama.

U. S. Type 31 includes what is called White Burley tobacco. It was first produced by George Webb in 1864. It is light in color and body, and is milder than the Burley used for pipes.

U. S. Type 32, Maryland tobacco, is noted for its "burn". In this respect Maryland excels most other tobaccos.

These are the kinds of home-grown tobaccos used for making Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Then Chesterfield adds aromatic Turkish tobacco to give just the right seasoning or spice.

Chesterfield ages these tobaccos for 30 months — 2½ years — to make sure that they are milder and taste better.

The UNKNOWN BLOND

By Laura Lou BROOKMAN

© 1933 NIA SERVICE INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
On a stormy November evening, a young man named BANNISTER, a pretty blond girl and a man in a suit and hat were in a room. The blond girl was sitting on a chair, and the man in the suit and hat was standing next to her. BANNISTER was looking at the girl and the man in the suit and hat was looking at BANNISTER.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER VII

DURING the taxi cab ride to police headquarters, J. Randolph Galtney drew a package of cigarettes from his pocket and held them toward Bannister.

"Have one?" he offered.

Bannister took the cigarette. "This girl—?" he said, and then stopped because he could not go on.

The reporter struck a match and held it forward. "Light?" he offered.

Bannister accepted the light.

Galtney touched the match to his own cigarette. "It was fast work!" he commented. "I thought myself all that line about the mysterious blond suspect was just a stall. Especially when Henley wouldn't give us the description." Galtney's voice was quiet and steady but his eyes had narrowed and the blue in them seemed even brighter.

"Do you think she did it? The girl, I mean?"

The reporter shrugged. "How should I know? Tracy King must have had plenty of girl friends all right. Probably wasn't above giving them a dirty deal either. The rat!" Galtney spat viciously into the air. "I hate crooners," he said.

"That's what this guy King was. As an orchestra leader he was lousy. The games fell for him because of the way he sang."

Galtney's face assumed an expression of distaste. "Lousy!" he murmured softly.

"But why are they so sure the girl did it?"

"That," said the other quietly, "you will have to get from your friend, Police Chief James Adolphus Henley."

The cab turned a corner and a moment more drew up at the curb. Galtney flashed a card in the taxi driver's face and dashed into the building, followed by Bannister.

"Where's McNeal?" Galtney demanded of the sergeant at the desk.

"Upstairs. They're all up there."

Two steps at a time Galtney mounted the stairs. Bannister was only a few feet behind, his breath coming rapidly. On the second floor the reporter turned left down a corridor. Half way to the end, a door opened ahead of them and a dark figure appeared.

"Cunningham!" Galtney exclaimed. "Where is she?"

"The man in the dark suit nodded. "In there," he said. "Steve Fisher's talking to her."

"You can't keep him here!" the girl cried. "You've got to let him go!"

"Did you see her? Talk to her! Did she get any pictures?"

"Sure. I gave the whole story to Austin over the phone. They've had her husband here all morning, only they didn't let anyone know it."

"Her husband?" It was Bannister who cut in sharply.

"They're trying to get a confession from him," Cunningham went on as though he hadn't heard, "but they'll never do it. That guy's too dumb to pull a murder."

"Say, wait a minute!" The diminutive Galtney's voice rasped harshly. "I'd like to know what this is all about. This morning we had the murder pinned on an unknown blond damsel. Now you say they've got her husband—"

The older man regarded him for a moment. "That's another one," he said shortly. "Oh, they're still looking for her. This dame's an usher at the State. Name is Carlotta Scurlach—ain't it a peach?"

Her husband's Herman Scurlach. Last night they found a letter Scurlach wrote to King, threatening to get him if he sang a certain song again. The guy, Scurlach, is jealous of this crooner, see? And the name of the song is 'Listen, Carlotta'—the same name as Scurlach's wife. There was a lot of other stuff in the letter about how King had better leave the girl alone. Well, last night King did sing the song—at the first performance. He left the theater after that and he never came back."

"We know all about that," Galtney interrupted. "How about the letter? Did you see it?"

Cunningham nodded. "Sid took a picture of it. Got one of the girl, too, when they brought her in. She's darned pretty. Spanish, I guess, or maybe Italian. Dark hair and eyes—"

"So we've got a brunet but the blond's still out," Galtney interrupted. "Say, where's Henley? The Boss says we've got to get the description of that other girl."

THE door at the end of the corridor opened then and an officer in a blue uniform stepped out. Suddenly, with a rush, a smaller figure was beside him. A figure in red and black and tan. A figure stamping and shaking defiant fists and bursting into a torrent of high-pitched hysterical protests.

"But you can't keep him here!" the girl cried. "You've got to let him go! He's my husband. You've got to let him go. Herman's a good man. Just because he loves me you want to take him away. But you can't do it! This is a free country and I'll fight. I'll show you where you big bums get off! Such a nerve you've got! I'll show you—"

The policeman put a hand over the girl's mouth—and instantly withdrew it.

"You little devil!" he exclaimed, holding up the blood-stained finger. "Quiet down now or you'll go into a cell—and stay there!"

"I won't! I won't!" screamed the girl. "This is a free country!"

It was Galtney who stepped forward. "Listen, kid," he said, "maybe you'd like to tell me about it. I'm from the Post and I certainly want to see that you and your husband get a square deal."

Whatever Galtney may have expected, his words had an instant and surprising effect. Carlotta Scurlach's dark eyes widened. Then her carmine lips closed together firmly. She looked at Galtney but no words came from those lips.

They walked down the corridor. Galtney at the girl's side. "I'd like to hear your side of all this," he was saying.

"There's nothin' doin' it," the officer said bluntly. "She won't talk to you. I told her when she came here she wouldn't have to talk to reporters."

They disappeared down the stairs. Bannister and Cunningham remained to eye each other.

"I don't think I know your name," Cunningham said apologetically. "Are you a new man?"

BANNISTER nodded. Within the past few minutes he had experienced such a complete emotional let-down that he felt almost giddy. He had come racing to headquarters from the newspaper office, thinking he would find Juliet France there. Juliet France, arrested for murder! He could not explain, even to himself, the tightness in his throat that picture had evoked. He had wanted to help the girl, had promised to help her, and he had failed. The extent of that failure was completely humiliating. It was worse. Now, after seeing the dark-eyed, shrewish Carlotta, Bannister felt such relief that it was a comfort to steady one hand against the wall.

"Yes," he said, "I'm working on the Post temporarily. Bannister's my name. Used to work here years ago."

"Know your way around this place?"

"I think so."

Galtney reappeared then, bounding up the steps, as usual, two at a time. "Wow!" he said. "What a handful that dame is!"

Cunningham said, "If you two are going to stay I guess I'll beat it back to the office."

"O. K.," agreed Galtney. "Tell Austin I'll call in half an hour."

For the first time Bannister felt something like confidence in what he was about to do. The conviction that he had blundered into something he was certain to regret began to recede.

"Galtney," he said, "there's one thing I'd like to do right away. I'm about eight hours behind the rest of you fellows on all this but I'm going to try to catch up. I suppose you're out at the Shelby Arms this morning and saw the room—I mean King's room where they found his body? I'd like to have a look at that place myself. Windows and doors and all that. Get it in my mind. Do you suppose you could fix it up?"

"Might see the Chief," Galtney suggested. "You said you know him, didn't you?"

Twenty minutes later, with a message signed by Chief Henley in his vest pocket, Bannister set out for the Shelby Arms. But he had an errand to take care of first.

He walked across town to Sixth street, continued until he reached the Hotel Tremont. Entering, he crossed the lobby, picked up one of the house telephones and asked to be connected with Miss Juliet France's room.

There was some delay. The operator couldn't seem to get the name correctly. After that there was a further wait. At last Bannister heard the operator's voice and then a man's. The man said, "I'm sorry. Miss France checked out of the hotel early this afternoon."

(To Be Continued)

to hear your side of all this," he was saying. "There's nothin' doin' it," the officer said bluntly. "She won't talk to you. I told her when she came here she wouldn't have to talk to reporters."

They disappeared down the stairs. Bannister and Cunningham remained to eye each other.

"I don't think I know your name," Cunningham said apologetically. "Are you a new man?"

BANNISTER nodded. Within the past few minutes he had experienced such a complete emotional let-down that he felt almost giddy. He had come racing to headquarters from the newspaper office, thinking he would find Juliet France there. Juliet France, arrested for murder! He could not explain, even to himself, the tightness in his throat that picture had evoked. He had wanted to help the girl, had promised to help her, and he had failed. The extent of that failure was completely humiliating. It was worse. Now, after seeing the dark-eyed, shrewish Carlotta, Bannister felt such relief that it was a comfort to steady one hand against the wall.

"Yes," he said, "I'm working on the Post temporarily. Bannister's my name. Used to work here years ago."

"Know your way around this place?"

"I think so."

Galtney reappeared then, bounding up the steps, as usual, two at a time. "Wow!" he said. "What a handful that dame is!"

Cunningham said, "If you two are going to stay I guess I'll beat it back to the office."

"O. K.," agreed Galtney. "Tell Austin I'll call in half an hour."

For the first time Bannister felt something like confidence in what he was about to do. The conviction that he had blundered into something he was certain to regret began to recede.

"Galtney," he said, "there's one thing I'd like to do right away. I'm about eight hours behind the rest of you fellows on all this but I'm going to try to catch up. I suppose you're out at the Shelby Arms this morning and saw the room—I mean King's room where they found his body? I'd like to have a look at that place myself. Windows and doors and all that. Get it in my mind. Do you suppose you could fix it up?"

"Might see the Chief," Galtney suggested. "You said you know him, didn't you?"

Twenty minutes later, with a message signed by Chief Henley in his vest pocket, Bannister set out for the Shelby Arms. But he had an errand to take care of first.

He walked across town to Sixth street, continued until he reached the Hotel Tremont. Entering, he crossed the lobby, picked up one of the house telephones and asked to be connected with Miss Juliet France's room.

There was some delay. The operator couldn't seem to get the name correctly. After that there was a further wait. At last Bannister heard the operator's voice and then a man's. The man said, "I'm sorry. Miss France checked out of the hotel early this afternoon."

(To Be Continued)

'White Collar' Relief His Aim

Relief for the nation's 2,000,000 "white collar" depressed victims is the aim of Dr. Jacob Baker, shown above at his desk in the capital. Dr. Baker heads this work under the federal emergency relief administration and has several special rehabilitation projects under way.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY
NEA Service Staff Writer

The home-maker who must practice strict economy will find it well worth her while to sure a ham and shoulder and side of pork at home. It's much less trouble than the uninitiated imagine and home-cured ham is something to be proud of.

Lard, too, can be tried out in one's own kitchen to good advantage and home-rendered lard is satisfactory in every way.

Naturally the smoking can't be accomplished at home, but as most butchers have their own arrangements for smoking meats, they are willing to look after this part of the curing for their customers.

There are two common methods of curing pork. "Sugar cured" meats are usually considered the finest. Although those cured in brine are preferred by some persons.

To Sugar Cure Pork
Fifty pounds meat, 2 1/2 pounds salt, 2 1/2 ounces pepper, 1/2 ounce saltpeter, 2 cups molasses.

Rub about 1 tablespoon table salt around the bone of ham and shoulder. Rub both sides of meat well with molasses. Mix salt, pepper and saltpeter thoroughly and rub well into the meat. Use about one-third of the mixture and let stand three days. Rub two more times at three-day intervals, making three rubbings in all. Let stand in a cool dry place for from four to six weeks. The famous Virginia ham is allowed to cure from two to one-half to three months. At the end of the curing period the meat is smoked or not, as preferred. Hang up in a cool dry place.

To Cure With Brine
First rub each ham or shoulder with 1 tablespoon powdered saltpeter. Rub around the bone with 1 teaspoon black pepper. Mix 1 1/2 pounds brown sugar with 2 cups salt and rub meat well with this. This quantity is enough for fifty pounds of meat. Put a layer of salt in the bottom of a tub. Put in meat, skin side down. Sprinkle with salt and add more meat. Let stand in this salt for eight days. Take out meat, wipe off all the salt and wash tub. Combine ounces of saltpeter, 8 cups molasses, 2 cups salt and 2 gallons of water. Boil and skim. When cool pour over meat in tub. The brine should cover the meat. Let stand in brine four or five weeks, turning meat once a week to be sure it is curing evenly. Bacon will cure in three weeks. Remove from brine and smoke. "Leaf" lard may be bought in any butcher shop or city market and tried out at home. Cut fat in small pieces. Put into a large kettle with just enough water to cover bottom of kettle. This prevents scorching when fat is first put over the fire. Cook slowly, stirring frequently, until the pieces of fat are crisp and crackly. Strain through cheesecloth into crocks. If you haven't a lard press put the cracklings into a jelly bag and squeeze out as much lard as possible.

Felt Much Better By Taking Cardui
"I took Cardui at two different times for a run-down condition," writes Mrs. P. M. Deason, of Tyler, Texas. "I would get nervous and could not sleep well. This would make me feel badly in daytime. I read about Cardui and thought it would be a good idea to take it. I took eight bottles one time and six another. I felt much better after taking it and was able to sleep. If you are weak, run-down, nervous, take Cardui, for women."

Goat Castle Pair Held for Murder

Merrill Mystery Leads to Re-Arrest of Man and Woman

NATZHEs, Miss.—(P)—R. H. C. Dana and Miss Octavia Dockery, eccentric residents of Goat Castle, near here, Wednesday were indicted for murder in connection with the slaying of Miss Janet Surget Merrill, aristocratic reclus, on the Merrill estate last August.

Dana and Miss Dockery previously were arrested and released in connection with the slaying.

Jots Around Shover

Oscar England made ribbon cane syrup at his brother Virgil's home Wednesday and spent Wednesday night there and finished the syrup making on Thursday. Leo England and wife accompanied his uncle, Oscar home and spent Thursday night there.

Miss Jimmy Glivens spent Wednesday with Mrs. Ethel Reece.

Mrs. John Reece was Thursday visitor at the Leon Darwin home.

Mrs. Russell Sparks and Mrs. Merret of Hope, were Saturday night and Sunday guests in the home of Mrs. Nellie Leach.

Grandpa England is not feeling well on account of having a bad cold.

Harmon Sanford called on Clint Martin at the Milton Caudle home.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Aslin and daughter, Mavis and Glorian, of Hope, were Sunday afternoon callers at H. B. Sanford's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wright and children were in Hope Saturday shopping.

Mrs. Jeff Wright called on Mrs. H. B. Sanford and Mrs. Reece O'Gray Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogers and daughter, Mable and little son, Doyle, of Shover Springs spent Sunday at Harold Sanford's.

Jim and Curtis Karber were in this vicinity on business Friday.

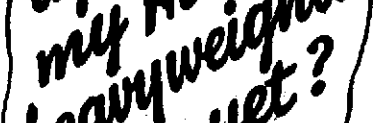

Bobbie Lee Rogers was dinner guest of Mavis and Glorian Aslin in Hope Saturday.

Several of this community attended the singing at Shover Springs Sunday afternoon.

The Aslin girls called on Eula Dean Caudle Sunday evening.

Jeff Wright had his father for over Sunday guest.

Agnes, have my Hanes heavyweights come yet?

COMB your fingers through the downy fluff inside HANES Wonderwear. Ruffle it up and smooth it down. Think of the shivers and shakes ahead... think of plowing through snow all day. Then, imagine HANES hugging your legs and arms, and snugging across your chest!

No matter how much you bend and reach in HANES, there's never a catch or scratch. The springy knit "gives" like your own skin, and snaps back just as smoothly. That's because HANES is knit and cut two ways — to the trunk-measure as well as the chest!

Buttonholes, cuffs and seams are sewed to last the life of the fabric. Stock-up for a warm Winter with Wonderwear. P. H. Hanes Knitting Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.

There are all sorts and sizes of HANES — shirts and drawers as well as union suits. The Heavyweight Champion is illustrated.

FOR MEN AND BOYS

FOR EVERY SEASON

HANES WONDERWEAR

NRA

Wm. R. Moore

Memphis, Tenn.

Leo Farmer is having some trouble with one of his cars.

Mrs. Nellie Leach called on Mrs. H. B. Sanford Monday evening.

Mr. Gordon's new house recently built has been completed and his brother and family will move into it.

Dudley Gordon will live there also. The place was formerly owned by Bernard Jones, now of Hinton.

Deven McMillen the school boy who fell from a tree several days ago and broke a leg, was taken back to Hope where the bone was rebroken and reset. He seems to be doing very well.

Lifting the Veil
The minister advertised for a manservant and next morning a nicely dressed young man rang the bell. "Can you start the fire and get breakfast by 7 o'clock?" asked the minister.

"I guess so," answered the young man.

"Well, can you polish all the silver, wash the dishes and keep the house neat and tidy?"

"Say, person," said the young fellow, "I came here to see about getting married—but if it's going to be as much work as all that you can count me out right now."—Tit-Bits.

NEW DRESSES

They'll Take the Town by Storm!

$ 5.85

Just when you want them—and need them! Bright, snappy, unusual styles—to take the monotony out of your wardrobe. The very latest styles—Dane Fashion's best! And see Penney's typical low price!

JUST OUT OF THEIR BOXES!

J. C. PENNEY CO.

PHONE 484
112 West Second

EXCITING NEWS FOR FRIDAY!

REPHAN'S

$35.00 COATS

$24.95

SALE OF

$29.75 COATS

$19.95

FINEST

$24.95 COATS

$16.95

C.O.A.T.S

So They Say!

We human beings, old and young, enjoy tests, provided we are not going to be hanged if we do badly.—Dean Max McCann of Lehigh University.

The depression proved the utter incapacity of big business to control itself.—self.—Gov. Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania.

You never can tell when I'll be sitting down here, trimming hats again.—Elda Vettori, Metropolitan Opera singer.

A smart lawyer can shoot holes through any legislation Congress can enact.—U. S. Senator James Couzens.

If labor does not act promptly, if it does not gain the support of working farmers, we virtually shall have surrendered America to a government of big business, by big business, and for big business.—Norman Thomas.

When I undertook this job it was just like mounting the guillotine on a bet that the ax wouldn't work.—Gen. Hugh S. Johnson.

Our experience has taught us there is no use spilling blood to get a little part of any country.—George Schmitt, I do not know just why, and can't explain it, but this country can be home to everyone.—Jose Iturbi, Spanish pianist.

Fan dances are just a fad, the answer to a world gone sex crazy.—Gilda Gray, former shimmy queen.

When gentlemen address each other as "Sir," we have civilization. When they slap each other on the back, decadence has set in.—Abba Minetti.

"TABLE TALK"

CHICKENS ARE PLENTY GOOD ENOUGH FOR ANYBODY—

BUT DUCKS AREN'T SO VERY EXPENSIVE—AND THEY'D BE NICE FOR A CHANGE—

A GOOSE WOULDN'T BE HALF BAD—

OH! BUT IT WOULDN'T BE THANKSGIVING WITHOUT THE GOOD OLD BIRD—

NOW THEY'RE TALKIN' TURKEY!

BY WILLIAM

J. M. Houston. Phone 488.
13-5p

The Bigger They Come

BY WILLIAM

NEA U.S. PAT. OFF. HEROES ARE MADE - NOT BORN. J.R. WILLIAMS © 1993 BY NEA SERVICE, INC. N-10

By HAMLIN

WASH TURBS

A Startling Discovery!

11/11/1961

D. CRANE

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Hold Tight!

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF. © 1933 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

By BLOSSER

THE NEWFANGLES (Mom'n Pop)

Speaking Their Pieces !

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
© 1933 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

By COWAN

Manufactured, Patented & Guaranteed by
LYRIL COMPANY, LaCrosse, Wis., U.S.A.
 W. V. KIDDER, President

Sold By
HOPE AUTO CO.
GEO. SHIPP SERVICE STATION
 West 3rd St. at Washington St.

Manufactured, Patented & Guaranteed by
LYRIL COMPANY, LaCrosse, Wis., U.S.A.
 W. V. KIDDER, President

Sold By
HOPE AUTO CO.
GEO. SHIPP SERVICE STATION
 West 3rd St. at Washington St.

Manufactured, Patented & Guaranteed by
LYRIL COMPANY, LaCrosse, Wis., U.S.A.
 W. V. KIDDER, President

Sold By
HOPE AUTO CO.
GEO. SHIPP SERVICE STATION
 West 3rd St. at Washington St.

Your chance to save on things you need

Pay Cash~Pay Less!

PATTERSONS

DEPARTMENT STORE

EVERYBODY'S CASH STORE

BRINGING SAVINGS TO YOU!

Turkey day is only 2 weeks away. Prices are down at Patterson's to move our stocks.

a PRE Thanksgiving sale

Adler-Rochester

Mt. Rock Wearweav

Quality Suits

Yes, quality is back again, in men's suits. This new showing offers you durability, style for the holidays and afterward, comfort and certain economy in the long run.

Dress up for Thanksgiving in a

HAND TAILORED

Adler-Rochester suit, in your choice of the rich new shades and weaves. Worth more—our price

$24.98

Men's Caps

And Boys Caps

All wool fabrics, unbreakable visors, adjustable bands, eight piece tops. Choice of new patterns

39c

New Hats

Rothchild Quality

Superior quality felt hats, in popular shades, and in new shades. The hat you'll want for the holidays, at a saving. Leather sweat bands, silk linings.

$2.98

Dollar Value Dress Shirts

Full cut for perfect fit—well made of good materials for lasting wear. Wrapped in cellophane. In solid blue, tan, green and white.

79c

Men's Fancy Dress Sox

Silk and rayon dress sox, in fancy plaids and stripes for the holidays. Quality, comfort and service, at a bargain price.

15c

Men's Work Shirts

Chambray and flannel work shirts, made coat style, with 2 pockets. Full cut. In gray or blue. 75c value in this sale for

49c

Stifel Dress Pants

Men's semi-dress pants made of the long wearing, neat looking Stifel fabric. $2.00 values. Pre-Thanksgiving sale price

$1.49

Holiday Shoes

One big lot of Men's Dress Oxfords in black veal calf, with or without arch supports, in plain and capped toes. Values up to $3.97. Pre-Thanksgiving sale price

Your choice, pair

$2.39

Sale of Fall Hats

A Clearance Before Thanksgiving

New shapes and shades. All head sizes. A large selection. $2.00 values. Sale price

$1.49

One Group Ladies New Felt Hats

Priced now for clearance. Your choice while they last—

89c

SAVINGS FOR MEN

Men's Part Wool Coat Sweaters

Fleece lined for extra warmth. Fancy designs. In all sizes. Extra values at this low price of only

98c

Men's Leatherette Lumber Jacks

Rain-proof and freeze-proof. Fleece lined, and made with elastic at waist. An excellent value at this price

$1.98

Boys' Leatherette Lumber Jacks. $1.49

Men's Ribbed Unionsuits

Heavy grade ribbed unionsuits in ceru only. Silk trimmed—pearl buttons. Worth more than this price on today's market.

67c

Boys' Ribbed Unionsuits

Boys' fleece lined, full length ribbed unionsuits. In all boys' sizes. Good and warm. An excellent value at 44c.

44c

Men's Moleskin Work Shirts

Heavy duty shirts for the outdoor man. Will give good service, and will keep out the cold. In tan or gray. Button down pockets with two flaps.

98c

Overalls

AND JUMPERS

Men's 220 weight overalls of a splendid quality. With 7 pockets! Triple stitched and bar tacked! Worth $1.25

98c

In blue denim or liberty stripe fabric. Ages 6 to 16. A bargain at

49c

Fine Footwear For Your Holiday Costume

One group of good style footwear, but the sizes are broken. For that reason they're on sale. In black kid, dull kid, in pumps, straps, eyelet ties and strap effects. Values to $8.50. Choice of the lot

2.97

Ladies Dress Footwear Regent Pumps and Ties

The newest styles for the holidays soon to come. Seamless Regent pumps and three eyelet ties, in black kid. Low heel oxfords, and many other clever styles. Values up to $3.98, now

$1.97

A Great Showing of New Fashions in COATS

Dress, Semi-Dress and Sports Types

$12.97

You may never see such coat values again, the way prices have been going up. Smartly styled, and perfectly tailored of the newest boucle and nubby woolens and new tweeds. With all silk crepe linings, and interlined.

Trimmed in good furs. Beautiful lines—new shades, and at savings!

Full Fashioned Pure Thread Silk Hose

In chiffon and service weight. The new shades for winter. French heels.

69c

3 pairs $2.00

Ribbed Winter Hose

A good cotton hose, in beige, gray, gun-metal or black. Only

15c

Rochanere, Canton and Flat Crepes

The new Fall and winter shades, and solid colors. Fancy floral and stripe patterns. Fabrics for every purpose, in a great showing. Price now, yard

89c

Devonshire, Gingham and Prints

Broadcloth, play cloth and novelty plaids. New patterns—guaranteed fast colors. 20c value. Sale price

54c

Ginghams, Prints

And broadcloth and linens in new patterns. Full yard wide—all colors. 25c value. Pre-Thanksgiving sale price

69c

Flannelette

Full yard wide—fancy stripes and pretty solid colors. A price that may not come again. Yard

12 1/2c

LL Domestic

Unbleached domestic at the rock bottom price this season. Full yard wide.

8c

Rayon Jersey Bloomers

Ladies and Misses pink or flesh colored panties, with elastic at waist and knee. In extra large sizes. Worth 50c on today's market. Sale price

35c

Ladies Flannel Gowns

Solid colors, and fancy patterns. All are embroidered, and well made. $1.25 values, while this large stock lasts only

89c

Pre-Thanksgiving Sale of Our NEW DRESSES

Including Several Clever New Suits

New styles in dresses fashioned of new silks, wool crepes and jerseys. Stunning suit styles in Rabbit Hair cloth, Jersey and tweed.

There's every type of dress or suit you could possibly want for Thanksgiving and the holidays soon to come. Black, brown and high colors. Including values up to $10.00.

$5.97

One group of Rough Crepe Silk Frocks. Fashioned according to the accepted mode for mid-winter wearing, these dresses are the last word of style. Of Rochanere Crepe. Satin-back, travel or triple-sheer crepes, and a few of the smart bengalines.

$9.97

New "Hug-Me-Tights"

The ideal garment for the outdoor girl. Vests and panties, made of ribbed cotton in two separate garments. Comfortable and warm. Fit like a glove.

49c

Misses Waist Unionsuits

Ribbed and fleece lined unionsuits for children and misses. Long sleeves—ankle length. Will give good service. Ages 4 to 12. 59c values for

44c

New Wash Dress Styles

Just arrived in time for this event. Long sleeves. Vat dyed—another dress if it fades. In all sizes. Worth 99c. Sale price

69c

Big Turkish Bath Towels

Double warp towels, size 20x40 with colored borders. They soak up the moisture. Lay in a supply, while you can get them at this price. Possibly never again at

19c

Good Wt. Double Blankets

PART WOOL

Flannel blankets in gray and light colors. Full, double blankets, fleecy and warm. At a price that would suggest laying in a supply.

$1.75

WOMEN'S UNIONSUITS

Long sleeve and ankle length ribbed union suits. Silk lined. Bleached white. Sizes 36 to 44. Pre-Thanksgiving sale price

69c